XX. University Policies (tabled 10/7/2012)

XX.1 The University will not make any amendments to or introduce any new University policies, guidelines, procedures and Codes of Conduct without the approval of the Unions.

XX.2 The University will consult with the Unions through the relevant committee or committees (the IMCC and/or the MSCC) in relation to the introduction or amendment of policies, guidelines, procedures and Codes of Conduct that have an impact on matters pertaining to staff covered by this Agreement, including for example, policies dealing with recruitment and selection, academic promotion, study leave and reclassification.

XX.3 The proposed amendments or new policies, guidelines, procedures and Codes of Conduct will be provided in writing to the Unions at the IMCC and/or MSCC.

XX.4 Only after they have been approved by the Unions in the IMCC and/or MSCC will University policies, guidelines, procedures and Codes of Conduct be amended or introduced.
